Views through the Windshield

Welcome to the first issue of The Transporter for 2008. Its the first for 2008 but my last as editor. That's right, after months of searching and begging, we finally found the right sucker, I mean, person to take over. Andrea Rasso has volunteered to take over as editor. She and her husband Brad have been long time LiMBO members and drive a beautiful Orly Blue 91 Vanagon Camper. They also put together a campout on Long Island in June called Buses by the Big Duck. Andrea is also the creative part of the Pirates of Patchogue. We're excited to have her as editor and I'm confident she'll do a great job. If you want to contact her, either to submit something for the newsletter or just welcome her to the crew you can eMail her at arasso@optonline.net or editor@limbobus.org works too. Andrea, welcome aboard.

On January 20th we had our annual business meeting. We missed you there. LiMBO is doing well, funds are in the black, membership is holding steady and the website is getting quite a few hits. Our 'Forever the Clerk', Mike Guilfoil wasn't able to get the meeting minutes finished in time for this issue, but Andrea will have them in the next issue.

Here are the highlights. I was reelected President and I'll do my best to keep LiMBO on the straight and narrow. Nevin Lescher, our long time LiMBOmart manager needed to step down and Tom Power has volunteered to take over. Tom, along with Linda Manion, have been our event coordinators for the last couple of years. Linda will continue as event coordinator so Tom can focus on the challenge of LiMBOmart manager. =) I'm sure he'll do fine.

I want to take a minute here to thank Nevin for his service as LiMBOmart coordinator and he has done quite a bit for LiMBO and the hobby in general. I wish him the best and I'm glad to hear that West River Westies is still on this Summer.

More meeting highlights included phasing out the LiMBO phone. Over the next couple of months we'll faze out 413-743-1814. If anyone needs to contact a live person, the official phone number will be 508-842-2121. That's Dale Wards home number AKA the LiMBO clubhouse.

It was also decided to reduce the price of the Internet Membership to 15 dollars. It's our hope to persuade more people to join LiMBO through the website and download their newsletter in the "Members Area".

2008 will also be the year we print a new edition of the Transporter, Traveler and Tourist Directory (TTT). I placed a form on the back page. Now, if you're not listed in the current TTT directory please fill out the form and send it back to Steve Paine at the address published. If you are currently listed in the TTT directory, you don't need to fill out the form unless your info has changed or you wish to change some aspect of your listing. For our internet members, there is a link to an on line form you can fill out. Whatever you decide to do, you need to have the forms submitted to Steve by April 15th. Tax day.

Well, I'm coming to the end of another View and the end as my editorship of this fine newsletter. It's been fun and I have enjoyed it. I'm looking forward to seeing what Andrea can bring to it, because God knows I'm out of ideas. To Andrea, good luck. To everyone else, I'll see you around the campfire. Keep on Busin' -Jim D.

Dear Volkswagen Family,

Every five minutes, someone in the United States learns that he or she has leukemia, Hodgkin or non-Hodgkin lymphoma or myeloma. Every ten minutes someone dies from blood cancer.

I am writing you today to ask you to join me in the fight against blood cancers. I am trying to raise $4700 for the Leukemia and Lymphoma Society of America by May 1, 2008. In June I will be participating in a great event, a 100 mile bicycle ride. I will be going to Lake Tahoe with Team in Training. Their cycling program is giving me this great opportunity and helping almost 800,000 Americans with blood cancers.

I bet you are thinking boy I sure would like to donate but, how much? So I came up with some ideas.

- $1 Every dollar counts.
- $25 That's 25¢ for each mile.
- $50 By the way, at this level I love you.
- $100 I will paint your house for free, well it's not free it's 100 bucks.
- $250 Wow, that is worth more than my car!!
- $500 For this much I would ride with out clothes on! (Yes, there will be pictures)
- $1000 You know, we all have dreams and some times they come true.

To donate, please visit my website:

<http://www.active.com/donate/tntnyvt/tntnyvtAHaytko>

You may also mail any donations to 157 Pine Circle, Bennington VT. 05201. Please make all checks out to Leukemia & Lymphoma Society of America. Any donations large or small are greatly appreciated! It's easy, and will only take a minute, that minute may save a life!

Thank you so much.

Art Haytko, is not only a LiMBO member and VW nut, but he is a real good friend of mine. When I heard he was going to do this, I thought it would be a great idea to post it here in the The Transporter. I hope many of you can donate to help such a good cause. Thank you. -Jim

The VW T5 Transporter... a quick look.

VWAG introduced this replacement for the Eurovan back in 2004. Since we didn't get it here in the good ol' USA it would seem VW had other plans for US market even then. With the Volkswagen Group of America, formally Volkswagen of American (see story page 5), announcing the new Routan for the US market, I thought it would be neat to look at what Europeans are driving. I'm also hoping that this is close to what VWAG has designed for us and that Chrysler will build a dependable and affordable van.

Volkswagen Announces the New Routan Minivan to Debut at Chicago

Chicago Auto Show 2008: New van from Volkswagen especially for the US market

Jan 18, 2008

source: Volkswagen AG

Wolfsburg, GERMANY - Volkswagen is stepping on the gas in one of its most important markets. Just weeks after the successful premiere of the new Passat CC at the current NAIAS 2008, Europe's largest car manufacturer will present the new Routan in Chicago (February 6 - 17, 2008).

Volkswagen will be showing its new minivan for the first time at the Chicago Auto Show. "Routan" is a newly coined word indicating the bond between Volkswagen and America. "Routan" contains both the English word "route" as well as the "-an" suffix which is appended to the names of Volkswagen's European vans - Touran and Sharan.

The new minivan is a joint development with Chrysler LLC. The vehicle will be built in the Canadian Chrysler factory in Windsor, Ontario. Of course, both the interior and the exterior follow Volkswagen's clear design concept. The appearance, technology and functionality are splendidly adapted to the US market. That's why the Routan is an imposing seven-seater more than five metres in length. Whether kids, dog, baseball gloves or inline skates - there is sufficient space for everyone and everything for the Friday afternoon trip to the park.

Volkswagen is hoping to increase its volume in North America with models like the Passat CC and the new Routan, both of which are strongly tailored to this market's requirements. Volkswagen wants to sell 800,000 vehicles just in the USA by 2018.

Volkswagen of America Changes Name to Volkswagen Group of America

AUBURN HILLS, MICH. (Dec. 12, 2007) — Volkswagen of America, Inc. announced today that it has changed its name to Volkswagen Group of America, Inc. The change will be fully effective January 1.

The new name better reflects the fact that the Volkswagen Group of America includes five distinct brands: Audi, Bentley, Bugatti, Lamborghini, and Volkswagen, as well as the related financial services functions of Audi Financial Services, Bentley Financial Services and Volkswagen Credit.

“Our company, like the entire Volkswagen Group, has grown dramatically since our formation in the United States in 1955. Our new corporate name allows our individual brands to flourish, while recognizing that we have a common support structure that gives us great strength as we face our competitors,” said Stefan Jacoby, President and Chief Executive Officer. “The new name Volkswagen Group of America reflects the much wider array of goods and services we now offer, and prepares us for even more activities in the future.”

Operating under the umbrella of Volkswagen Group of America, the Volkswagen and Audi brands will continue to provide sales and service under their names, Volkswagen of America and Audi of America.

Volkswagen Group of America, Inc. remains a wholly owned subsidiary of Volkswagen AG, which together with its subsidiaries and affiliates worldwide is now the fourth largest automobile company in the world.

BUSES IN THE BAY ' 07

By Coy Bethune

On July 27th through 29th "Buses in the Bay" was held at Melville Campground in Portsmouth Rhode Island. John Netsel and Kevin Kruger were already there when my son Chris and I arrived to set up. As mid to late afternoon rolled around the Buses and Vanagons started rolling in and in the evening the Howland's arrived in their 2003 Euro van. Their were a couple of Saturday arrivals as well, we ended up with about a dozen VWs and a couple dozen people.

Saturday afternoon we cruised to Newport Creamery in Middletown for ice cream! When we got back some of us went to the beach, you get a free pass when you stay at Melville. Later in the evening we had a great pot luck followed by a raffle to support "Water For Life" (the drilling of wells in Togo Africa). We raised $100.00. Rich's granddaughter Kaiya won the most favored raffle prize: a remote controlled Bus. We're off to a great beginning with this new event, we hope to see you next year!

Editors note: Dale Ward sent this to me via eMail. He said it was posted on Craigs list. Not sure if it was a real ad or someone just having fun, but its funny. If the guy was serious, its funnier yet.

Restored VW Vanagon, might be open to trades - $9000

Reply to: sale-523394474@craigslist.org
Date: 2007-12-30, 8:49AM PST

I have a "restored" Vanagon for sale. These have become very popular these days, are increasing in value and are becoming a collectors item. Compared to the $18000 Vanagons, this is a steal!!!!It doesn't have a pop-top?? Who needs a stinking poptop??? This vintage automobile is stock.

The good...

Seats aren't too dirty and no tears bad enough to replace. I just put some seat covers from Shuck's on them. I have the repair history. Or at least some of it. Brakes were done in 97. Squeals a little when you pump on the pedal. I just use the E-brake a lot instead. Engine was overhauled 12 years ago. It currently has 325k miles on it. Van itself has 400,000 plus miles, not varified as speedo no longer works. Could be a little more. This is low considering the van is more than 20 years old.

I have religiously changed the oil every 25k miles if it needed it or not. It did pass deq 2 years ago, and afterwards, I removed the cat converter and punched out the screens. It now gets better performance with that crap removed. Because of my performance mods, she is a fast Vanagon. I had it up to 93 in Eastern Oregon once. But of course I was going downhill.

The rust along the bottom edge all around it makes it lighter than a typical Vanagon. It is getting progressively lighter too. This helps with the top speed. The lighter it gets, the faster it goes!

Plates are currently expired. I haven't got new ones yet as I lost the title but I can sign papers so you can get a new one. Some people call this a "bill of sale" only. It was in my brother-in-laws name and he died but I'm sure his ex-wife ( my sister) in Colorado will sign a release of interest when I find her (she also owes me money). This might quickly resolve it's self when the FBI finds her. Van runs OK, lifters makes noise but they all do that. Sometimes it goes away...

Has a slight coolant leak. I just refill the water bottle every day before I leave for work. Not a big problem. I carry around a gal of water in case it gets hot. Perfect for the family, although the seat belts were removed from the back seats. Rear seat folds into a California King sized bed. The foam pad is a little funky from my dog. She sleeps in the van at night. I have a water bed to put in but never did. I'll throw it in. The advantage of a water bed is all that water! If you run low in the coolant system, just drain some from the water bed. Front glass has a few cracks but it's on the passenger side. So, it's OK. Has AC but doesn't work. Not sure what is wrong, probably just needs a recharge. Bought some new tires on CL recently. Well aren't exactly new but they are OK.

Two-tone paint job (Brown with a red door). Looks really shiny when wet.

Now for the bad... Slight oil leak. I just carry a case of oil with me and a cat litter box catches the oil as it runs out, usually I can just pour it back in. So you are recycling too. I guess you could call it a "green" van. Has AM FM Cassette player. My son put his popcycle in the tape slot, but will work if cleaned. Has a huge sunroof. But won't close the last 6". It's been that way for a yr. I have duct taped it closed. It can easily be fixed. I'll throw in a new plastic tarp to put over it in winter.

Slight ding in the front. I rear ended a dump truck. I pulled it out with a come-along and covered it with a black bra. So, it still looks OK. Bra comes with the Van.

Slight ding in rear, I removed the bumper and put on one from a Ford PU. Looks pretty good. Little door behind lic-plate doesn't open anymore. Slight ding in slider. Doesn't latch perfectly but a bungy cord is good insurance. Electric door locks are on the fritz. Sometimes they won't open. The lock is broken on the drivers side. Not that big of deal as the window won't close anyway. The dog is usually in there to guard my stuff. Heaters no longer work but hey, it's a VW and this the NW! The heater leaked coolant into the cab. It has a sweet smell so it's OK. Anyway, this isn't a big prob as it doesn't get that cold here. In the winter, I heat up a big brick in my oven before I leave in the morning. If you wrap it in a towel and put it in your lap, you stay toasty! I'll throw in my brick for free. Sorry, I'll keep my oven. On really cold mornings: I open up a can of Sterno.

All in all a great vehicle that will only appreciate in value. A Subaru conversion would be awesome for this! AS would one of those faux-westy poptops. Cool thing is there is a lot of parts still available. There is a weird long-haired guy in N. Portland that has been hoarding a bunch of parts. I have his ph # somewhere. He is having a problem with his landlord and has to enter his building through his neighbors building. So he is kinda hard to get a hold of.

Van comes with a case of oil!

Van is located in Spokane, I am in Portland. If coming from Seattle, I could meet you halfway between Ritzville and Ellensburg. I might consider trading for a HumVee or Mercedes. I will throw in an extra set of tires though they are on Ford rims.

Please email your offers as I have lost my cellphone in the van somewhere.
Thank you

February

February 16, Saturday, Cambridge, Ont.- 5th Annual True Canadian Winter Bus Campout at Valens Conservation Area. They have serviced sites for $30/per night. There are flush toilets and showers nearby. They also have ice fishing and cross country ski trails in the park. Recent reports suggest Valens no longer allows us to double-up on sites; so even if we do share sites we will still pay full rate. Valens does not take reservations for winter camping, but don't panic as they simply aren't needed. Email Greg if you are coming and he will call the park superintendent to be sure that a sufficient number of powered sites are plowed. Greg's email is greg@pottsfamily.ca NOTE: It's imperative that you arrive during daylight hours, or the gate will be locked. If you're ice fishing, get a license beforehand at your local hunting and fishing supplier. Valens website: <http://www.conservationhamilton.ca/parks/visit/valens.asp>
DIRECTIONS: From EAST, WEST, or NORTH: To get to Valens take Hwy 401 to exit 299. Follow highway 6 south for 8.6KM and go east on Regional Rd 97 for 9.6 KM. Follow the Conservation Area signs and you should have no problem finding the place. From the South: Take the QEW to Highway 403 in Hamilton. Go 7 KM West on 403 to Highway 6 North. Follow highway 6 uphill for 3 KM to Regional Road 97. Go east on 97 for 9.6 KM and the park is on your right. ## April

April 17-20 (Thurs-Sun) Pleasant Garden, NC - Everybus 2008- held at Hagan-Stone Park located approximately 10 miles south of Greensboro, NC. Park website: <http://www.greensboronc.gov/Departments/Parks/facilities/reservations/hagan.htm> Past events have brought more than 170 VW Transporters together for a few days of camping fun and fellowship for the entire family. Although the event does not start until Thursday, people have been known to arrive as early as Tuesday. The fee for EB will be $15 per night per bus. There will not be an additional activity fee this year. There is NO preregistration for EB. Please do not call the park and ask them about it. There are about forty sites in the C-loop with hookups and folks usually share. There is however room for 175 to 200 buses. Plan to arrive early if you must have hook ups. When you arrive at EB and get your bus parked please come to the registration table to sign in, pay fees, and receive your EB Camping Permit. Count on some food, music and fun for the kids. More details about activities as they become available. HSP has two heated bathhouses with showers. They are located on opposite corners of the camping area. The possession and consumption of alcohol (beer, wine, liquor) is prohibited within HSP and campground so no beer, wine, or liquor in its various retail packaging should be visible. Please take into consideration the proximity of your camping neighbors when selecting volume levels for music or raucous merriment in the later evening hours. Please note that quiet hours are from 11:00 PM to 7:00 AM. There is not an official "vendors" area because EB is really a camping event and not a show or swap meet. Technically, EB is only open to campers and their guests. However, you are welcome to set up shop at your campsite if you wish to sell bus parts, crafts, or clothing. Dogs (and pets in general) - HSP does allow pets in the campground with the following stipulations: all pets must be on a leash and the other end of the leash secured to the owner. Pet owners must clean up after their animals. There have been complaints about dogs in the past, so please carefully evaluate the impact it may have on your camping experience and that of others and decide if EB is the right place to bring your dog. If you need information on boarding your dog in the Greensboro area while you attend to EB, please contact event organizer, who can be reached by email at everybus@mindspring.com For more information, go to the website: <http://www.mindspring.com/~everybus/>

Midwest Scene

Northeast Illinois Volkswagen Association in its attempt to stamp out mediocrity did it again! With the help of its member volunteers, their friends, and a huge contribution from the workers at Anderson Volkswagen in Crystal Lake, Illinois, the annual VWFEST came about. The Anderson people cleared their lot of cars, encouraged all to enjoy their grounds, and of course moved all those cars back. The NIVA people prepared the paperwork, chased the details, registered the participants, worked the show, supervised activities, lined up the DJ, food provider, trophies, show parking alignments, and other thankless tasks with courtesy, cheer, and aplomb.

There were 19 classes, with roughly 135 entries, 1st, 2nd, 3rd awards, plus best of show. Trivia test question winners were rewarded as well. A 50/50 raffle delivered a $182 (and a matched club $182) donation to the Leukemia Society. The DJ provided background tunes throughout the day while participants, guests, and workers trotted from spot to spot on the large lot.

Though the fall morning started out brisk, the warming sun produced a magnificent, comfortable day. Visitors and participants were delighted by the colorful variety of cars, swap articles, and displays. Lots of people were present with good advice, helpful suggestions, and entertaining conversations.

Support those local shows, far and near.

'08-'09 Transporter Tourist & Traveler Directory

LiMBO (Late Model Bus Organization, international) and NEATO (Northeast Association of Transporter Owners) have established a directory of club members who offer their assistance to other traveling VW Bus enthusiasts in the event of a breakdown, or emergency and also to make it possible for a traveling bus person to call or visit with other members in non-emergencies.

Sometimes a talk or visit with a friendly fellow bus owner can make a trip much more fun and rewarding.

If you would like to be listed in the Transporter Tourist & Traveler Directory (TTT), please provide the following information. YOU MUST SUBMIT THIS FORM TO BE INCLUDED IN THIS DIRECTORY.

By filling out and returning this form, you agree that neither LiMBO or NEATO, nor any of their officers, members or associates will be held liable for any action resulting from the distribution, use, or abuse of the information you provide. The list of names compiled will not be sold to anyone! Participation in the TTT Directory is completely voluntary. If you do not feel comfortable giving out any information, do not give it.

Use of the TTT Directory is open to all members, in good standing, of LiMBO and NEATO, and only members of these organizations.
